SUBJECT: TFCD01: CHAD TASK FORCE SITUATION REPORT NO. 10

FRENCH TO INTERCEPT REBEL COLUMNS EN ROUTE TO CAPITAL

1. (SBU) French sources report two rebel truck columns carrying ammunition and fuel from Abeche are en route to N'Djamena and are expected to arrive imminently, according to Embassy Paris. MFA contacts in Paris report the French military plans to fire on the rebels before they reach the city perimeter. Embassy Paris reports the French Presidency expects the security situation to deteriorate over the next 12-24 hours.

FIFTY-TWO MORE AMCITS TO EVACUATE FROM CHAD

2. (SBU) Embassy N'Djamena reports 19 Amcits are staged at the airport, with an additional eight elsewhere in the city requesting evacuation assistance. Additionally, 25 Amcits in eastern and southern Chad plan to depart on their own by February 7. The Task Force continues to field new welfare and whereabouts calls. Approximately 125 Amcits intend to remain in Chad.

REFUGEES CONTINUE TO ENTER CAMEROON

13. (SBU) Embassy Yaounde will send staff to assist over 100 local employees from Embassy N'Djamena who have fled with their families to Kousseri. Embassy Cameroon is preparing a Disaster Declaration, which would enable post to support relief efforts for up to 50,000 refugees believed to have entered Cameroon from Chad.
